A rarely available and beautifully proportioned three-bedroom duplex apartment, set within a distinguished period building in one of Bayswater’s most sought-after locations. Offering approximately 1,601 sq ft (148.7 sq m), the property combines impressive period proportions and original features with generous entertaining space, 3 private terraces and excellent transport connections.

The apartment is arranged over the first and second floors and opens into a spectacular reception room, featuring ceilings of approximately 4.4 metres, an attractive fireplace and three sets of floor-to-ceiling windows. The exceptional ceiling height and abundance of natural light create a wonderful sense of volume and grandeur.

The separate fitted kitchen is equipped with a range of contemporary units and integrated appliances.
